

Multitask-ComForce™

The COMSYSTEMS® "Multitask-ComForce" equipment is based directly on a set of multitask communications with the ability to communicate in voice and / or data with ranges of some kilometers or long ranges of several kilometers.

This product is mainly used by state agencies with the needs of coordination and controls of temporary or permanent operations. In the event of a major event in a country such as a terrorist attack or severe weather that could cause any major interruption of Internet communication, Email, Messaging, cellular telephony, and more ... The Multitask-ComForce may in all cases have a response for coordination using the citizens and securing the country's infrastructure.

The product is inscribed in a transportable and easily transportable shockproof box on the premises with all its connections to the desired airs with a telescopic included mat transportable in a bag.

8 or 10m telescopic mast with carrying case including all mounting accessories.

- HF / SSB 125w equipment equipped with digital vocoder, sms, email for long-range communications.
- VHF or UHF equipment for HF-VHF link and interlink multizones.
- (Gateway) Interconnect and dispatch on 4 Zones max on different frequencies and bands.
- Options on request:
 - Satellite link on THURAYA, IMMARSAT, IRIDIUM
 - VOIP PBX interface
 - MeSH access
 - SHF link (PTP)